GARDEN GROVE, Calif. – Earth Friendly Products, manufacturer of award-winning eco-friendly cleaning products, announces that the company will provide a substantial financial contribution in support of "Shine On Sierra Leone," a U.S.-based nonprofit organization committed to providing much needed assistance to the communities of Sierra Leone. CEO and owner of Earth Friendly Products, Van Vlahakis, said, "Healthcare in Sierra Leone is ranked lowest in the world and has the highest mother and child mortality rates.
