EARTH FRIENDLY PRODUCTS TOASTS TO FINDING A CURE FOR CYSTIC FIBROSIS

GARDEN GROVE, Calif. – Earth Friendly Products, manufacturer of award-winning eco-friendly cleaning products, announces the first of many sponsorship events with the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation (CFF), an organization that seeks to ensure the development of the means to cure and control cystic fibrosis, and to improve the quality of life for those with the disease, with the “Premiere CRU” sponsorship of the annual WineMasters fundraiser. The event, which will be held on May 14, 2011 at the “Midwest Street” backlot at Warner Bros. Studio in Burbank, California, is a wine tasting extraordinaire and spectacular benefiting the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

Earth Friendly Products manufactures chemical-free cleaning products which do not adversely impact the respiratory system the way that harsh chemicals can. Because Cystic Fibrosis (CF) is a genetic disease affecting approximately 30,000 children which affects their lungs and may cause early death, company executives, including Vice President, Kelly Vlahakis-Hanks, feel passionately about sponsoring CFF and helping the charity find a cure for CF.

“Finding a cure for a disease that affects thousands of children and young adults is paramount in our decision to partner with CFF,” said Vlahakis-Hanks. “Our cleaning products, which are made from 100% natural, plant-derived formulas, are safe for use in every home and are especially beneficial for use in households where family members are prone to respiratory infections. Our sponsorship for CFF events was a natural step and we are delighted to move forward with this partnership.”
