FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

EARTH FRIENDLY PRODUCTS PROTECTS THE AIR WITH GREEN POWER PARTNERSHIP

- Pioneer in eco-friendly cleaning, Earth Friendly Products, joins likeminded Environmental Protection Agency -

GARDEN GROVE, Calif. – Earth Friendly Products is proud to announce their Green Power Partnership award from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, EPA.

The EPA is committed to reducing negative contributors to climate change by supporting sustainable technologies for businesses and communities. Green Power Partners voluntarily purchase kilowatt-hours of green power energy to rid the planet of electric use, lowering air pollution and greenhouse gas emissions. Earth Friendly Products is proud to be one of their newest Partners. Other benefits of joining the Green Power Partnership are evading carbon dioxide and lowering or maintaining electric price increase.

Van Vlahakis, CEO of Earth Friendly Products gives us his view on the Partnership, "As a company, we're committed to lowering chemical use in the home and workplace, but a sustainable life doesn't stop there. We're proud to be contributing to healthier air for people and the planet. We hope to inspire more companies and businesses to join their good cause."

Earth Friendly Products continues to make going green a priority with over 150 all-natural, green home and industrial cleaning products with innocuous ingredients. To better your family and co-workers with safer cleaning, or learn more about what Earth Friendly Products is doing for the environment, please visit www.ecos.com. Readers interested in joining the Green Power Partnership please visit www.epa.gov/greenpower/index.htm.
